Format Festival: Expressions of Interest

Due Monday December 15th, 2008

Adelaide's proto DIY festival, the Format Festival, is currently seeking expressions of interest from those looking to run exhibits, performances, workshops, panels and so on and so forth. All you need to do is fill in the details below and give us a 50 word (or less) blurb on what you want to do, which we'll use for things like our website and for general programming purposes. You can change it later if you want. We don't have any money, but we can provide a venue (145 Hindley Street), publicity and, grant funding permitting, resources and equipment.

Send all applications and direct all questions to Ianto Ware
